(Specifically, we may disclose information to or collect information from Equifax, whose privacy policy and contact details are at www.equifax.com.au). Credit reporting bodies collect credit information about individuals which they provide as credit reports to credit providers and others in the credit industry to assist them in managing credit risk, collecting debts and other activities.

“Credit pre-screening” is a service for credit providers wishing to send direct marketing material about credit services. A credit reporting body uses information it holds to screen our individuals who do not meet criteria set by the credit provider. Credit reporting bodies must maintain a confidential list of individuals who have opted out of their information being used in pre-screening. To opt-out of credit pre-screening, contact the credit reporting body, using the contact details on their websites, referred to above. You can also ask a credit reporting body not to use or disclose your personal information for a period if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity fraud.
